“Flanked by SFPA executive director Tami Kessler and SFPA board chairman Scott Vande Linde, the recipients (pictured L-R) are William Almond, Almond Brothers Lumber Company, Coushatta, LA (Division I – mills producing under 50 million board feet annually); Jim Krauseneck, Weyerhaeuser Company, Holden, LA and Millport, AL (Division II – mills producing 51-150 million board feet per year); and Kerlin Drake, Anthony Forest Products, Urbana, Arkansas (Division III – mills producing more than 150 million board feet annually).

In presenting the awards, Chairman Vande Linde noted, “When it comes to operating a sawmill, the safety of our workers remains our number one concern. And on behalf of all SFPA members, I want to recognize these four sawmills that have excelled at making safety in the workplace a top priority.”
